Author Archer Mayor to visit Adams Free Library Thursday, Nov 3rd @ 6p.m.

"This program is made possible by a grant from Mass Humanities, which provided funding through the national Endowment for the Humanities via the American Rescue Plan."

Archer Mayor is the author of the highly acclaimed Vermont-based mystery series featuring detective Joe Gunther, which the Chicago Tribune describes as "the best police procedurals being written in America." His 33rd book, Fall Guy, is in stores now.

Mayor's novels are rooted in actual field experience. Closely aligned to the Gunther series are the author's own experiences in Vermont working variously as a police officer and a firefighter/EMT over the past thirty years. Currently, he still works as a medico-legal death investigator for the state's medical examiner. This background adds depth, detail, and veracity to his characters and their struggles.
